

Essay #1 Foundations of Civilizations Essay

First quarter was focused on the foundations of modern society. We looked at Ancient Civilizations in your PBL and we read the most ancient literature from different cultures/areas of the world. Using your notes based on your first quarter readings you will look at an element of society that existed in one or more of your ancient civilization(s). You will be describing this element, examining how it affected the story/characters, and then explaining how it still exists in society today.
