

English 10/English 10 Honors-Quote of the Day-Third Quarter

January 21-22

Russian—

In this day and age people are wiser.

January 23-26

Polish—

The night has its own code.

January 27-28

Polish—

He who wishes to become rich must become a swine.

January 29-30

Belgian—

You must look through the fingers.

February 2-3

Bulgarian—

Thrash the apprentice while he has not yet broken the water jug.

February 4-5

Romanian—

Men are all made of the same paste

February 6-9

Albanian—

The wolf likes the fog

February 10-11

Estonian—

He who works in the dust cannot stay clean

February 12-17

Latvian—

Folded hands gain no bread

February 18-19

Russian—

Where there are beavers, there are trappers.

February 20-23

Slovenian—

The hand that holds a sword should be kissed.

February 24-25

German—

As Princes fiddle, subjects must dance.

English 10/English 10 Honors-Quote of the Day-Third Quarter

February 26-27

Bulgarian—

What is in the hand is real.

March 2-3

Lithuanian—

One does not live two ages.

March 4-5

Japanese—

By poking a bush you make snakes crawl out.

March 6-9

Chinese—

If one word does not succeed, ten thousand are of no use.

March 10-11

Chinese—

If one wishes to be acquainted with the past one must read five cartloads of books.

March 12-13

Chinese—

From the roof of a house a melon may roll one of two ways.

March 16-17

Korean—

A monk cannot shave his own head.

March 18-19

Chinese—

He has incense in one hand and a spear in the other.

March 20-23

Mongolian—

A bad shot blames his sleeves.

March 24-25

Chinese—

Whoever can foresee the affairs of three days, will be rich for several thousand years.