

Reading List for Fourth Quarter

1) Novels that Define an Era

Inferno—Medieval Era—Dante Alighieri—pgs 732-756

Utopia—Renaissance Era—Sir Thomas More—pgs 794-801

Don Quixote—Enlightenment Era—Miguel de Cervantes—pgs 828-842

Faust—Romantic Era—Johann Wolfgang von Goethe—pgs 880-894

Metamorphosis—Modern Era—Franz Kafka—pgs 1108-1147

Changing Societies

Things Fall Apart—Nigeria—Evangelization's impact on society's culture/religion

Joy Luck Club—Asian-American—Becoming "Americanized"

Fahrenheit 451—Censorship and Governmental Control in America

2) Ties to History

- Black Elk—"The Butchering at Wounded Knee"
- Sitting Bull—Various Speeches

3) Speeches that Shape our World

from the Apology—Plato—pgs 246-253

"Professions for Women"—Virginia Wolff—pgs 1156-1163

"Letter from Birmingham Jail"—Martin Luther King, Jr.

"I have a Dream"—Martin Luther King, Jr.

Speech to the Virginia Convention—Patrick Henry

"Gettysburg Address"—Abraham Lincoln

2nd Inaugural Address—Abraham Lincoln

from the World Was Silent—Elie Wiesel

Nobel Prize Acceptance—Elie Wiesel

3rd Inaugural Address—Franklin D. Roosevelt

4th Inaugural Address—Franklin D. Roosevelt

Introductions Covered in Third and Fourth Quarter

- 686-695 Europe in Transition
- 774-783 Renaissance & Enlightenment
- 870-879 Romanticism
- 934-943 Emergence of Realism
- 1094-1107 Expressions of Modernism
- 1200-1205 Responses to War and Conflict
- 1320-1323 Contemporary Nobel Prize Winners